Course Objectives/Learning Outcomes

This course introduces students with the concepts and tools related to website design and development. The topics include: website layouts, creating tables, frames, and forms, presenting multimedia on web pages, and hosting websites on Internet. Students will gain hand-on experience of design and developing websites.

This course focus is in HTML and CSS, therefore, students must refrain from including any scripting language e.g. JavaScript, in the assignments and project. No extra marks will be given and scripts may be subject to removal.

Remote Learning

All course material including lecture notes, slides, sample code, assignment and lab details will be available on the course website.

Lectures and labs will be delivered live during the scheduled times via Zoom. Lecture and lab content will not be posted. Recording is not permitted.

- Students must display their real/full name
- Use of video is optional
- Participants must be muted when not speaking
- Students may interact via chat, voice or gestures

Students can find answers to frequently asked questions related to remote learning here: <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/covid-19/remote-learning-faq.html>.

Evaluation Criteria

1. Assignments (10%) - Three assignments will be given to the students (3~4% for each).
 - All assignments are to be completed individually.
 - Late assignments will not be accepted.
 - Assignments are to be submitted through Nexus. Written assignments should be in PDF (Portable Document Format) only. For coding assignment that has HTML, CSS and any supporting files, they must be all placed into a zip file and submit the zip file.
 - Please refer to the section Use of HTML/CSS Templates if you intent to use HTML/CSS templates in your work.
 - Assignments that do not meet all the requirements, including those for the submissions, may not be accepted or a portion of the marks will be deducted.

- Problem solving and programming assignments could be very time consuming. So please start early.
- Students are responsible to review their assignments before submissions to make sure the correct files are submitted.
- Multiple submissions are permitted but only the last submission will be accepted as the final submission and marked. Students may submit partially completed assignments, and will receive credit for those attempted problems. Students are responsible for backing up and protecting their assignment work.

2. Project: (15 %)

- The details of the project will be announced later.
- All of the policies/rules for the assignments stated above are also applicable to the project.

3. Midterm Test: (25 %)

- During regular class time.
- 1 hours 15 minutes duration

4. Final Exam (50%)

- The final exam covers all material discussed in the course.

Note: Students should contact the instructor as soon as possible if extenuating circumstances require missing an assignment, test, or examination. A medical certificate from a practicing physician may be required before any accommodations can be considered.

Exam Requirements

- Photo ID is required for midterm tests and the final exam.
 - Midterm and final exams will be delivered via Nexus and proctored via Zoom. Students must have video capability and have their faces clearly visible in the video during the entire duration of the exam. They must be prepared to present their student ID.
- Midterm and final exams are open book.
 - Students are permitted to view only the following authorized course material:
 - Class notes, slides, recordings, sample code, assignment descriptions and solutions posted by the instructor
 - Course textbook
 - Student's own course notes and assignment submissions
 - Students may use an external tool such as a text editor or IDE to write answers to questions before entering them into the exam

- Students may contact the instructor to ask questions
- External resources (or any material not listed above) are NOT PERMITTED
- Communication with others (except the instructor) is NOT PERMITTED
- All work must be entirely the students' own. Collaboration or sharing of work is NOT PERMITTED.

Students with documented disabilities, temporary or chronic medical conditions, requiring academic accommodations for tests/exams (e.g., private space) or during lectures/laboratories (e.g., note-takers) are encouraged to contact Accessibility Services (AS) at 204-786-9771 or accessibilityservices@uwinnipeg.ca to discuss appropriate options. All information about a student's disability or medical condition remains confidential.

<https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/accessibility-services>.

Students may choose not to attend classes or write examinations on holy days of their religion, but they must notify their instructors at least two weeks in advance. Instructors will then provide opportunity for students to make up work examinations without penalty. A list of religious holidays can be found in the 2019-20 Undergraduate Academic Calendar online at

<http://uwinnipeg.ca/academics/calendar/docs/important-notes.pdf>

Use of HTML/CSS Templates

A HTML/CSS template is a large block of HTML/CSS code that is pre-designed/pre-built, in which anyone can add in their own content (text, images, etc) to create a website/page.

Any use of HTML/CSS templates in any form or from any source (free or paid), except those from the sample codes provided by the instructor, is not permitted because the use of template defeats the purpose of taking this course – learn the fundamental of HTML/CSS to build a solid foundation for web development. It also violates UW's academic integrity policies, which, in short, states the course work submitted must be 100% from your own work. Therefore such practice is considered not acceptable and could be handled as an act of academic misconduct.

Please note that judging whether a student's code is from a template is at the instructor's discretion. The instructor may use the criteria that include, but are not limited to: excessive use of elements/properties that haven't been discussed yet in this course, excessive use of skills/techniques that are beyond the topics in this course (like scripting language), a considerable number of code blocks that are not being actually used in the web pages/website. If necessary, the instructor may also ask the student to thoroughly interpret the code that is suspected as a template.

The penalty to using template(s) is also at the instructor's discretion and could lead to a 0 mark to the web page/website with template(s) in it.

Students are allowed to create their own templates for their own use in assignments/project. All HTML/CSS code used in such template(s) must be written by the student himself or herself. The aforementioned templates are not allow to be shared with other student(s) in any form (modify in full or partially modify), with the exception that the template is being used in the group project. Sharing your templates with other students who use them in their submitted course work will for sure trigger the proceeding of an academic misconduct case.

Email Communication

Emails from accounts at uwinnipeg.ca are usually not filtered by the UofW email filter. Thereby it is recommended electronic communication used for the course utilize a UofW email account to minimize the risk of filtering.

The email sent to the instructor must include your full name, your student#, and the COURSE# WITH YOUR COURSE SECTION# (like ACS-1809-004) in the subject line of your email. If your email address already includes your name (like in UW's webmail) then you can skip typing your name there. A respectful manner is also expected in the email communications.

Final Letter Grade Assignment

Historically, numerical percentages have been converted to letter grades using the following scale. However, instructors can deviate from these values based on pedagogical nuances of a particular class, and final grades are subject to approval by the Department Review Committee.

A+	90+ - 100%	B	70 - 74%	F	below 50%
A	85 - 90%	C+	65 - 69%
A-	80 - 84%	C	60 - 64%
B+	75 - 79%	D	50 - 59%

Regulations, Policies, and Academic Integrity

Academic dishonesty is a very serious offense and will be dealt in accordance with the University's policies.

Avoiding Academic Misconduct: Students are encouraged to familiarize themselves with the Academic Regulations and Policies found in the University Academic Calendar at:

<https://uwinnipeg.ca/academics/calendar/docs/regulationsandpolicies.pdf>

Particular attention should be given to subsections 8 (Student Discipline), 9 (Senate Appeals) and 10 (Grade Appeals). Please note, in particular, the subsection of Student Discipline pertaining to plagiarism and other forms of cheating.

Detailed information can be found at the following:

- Academic Misconduct Policy and Procedures: <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/institutional-analysis/docs/policies/academic-misconduct-policy.pdf> and <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/institutional-analysis/docs/policies/academic-misconduct-procedures.pdf>
- UW Library video tutorial "Avoiding Plagiarism"
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UvFdxRU9a8g>

Uploading essays and other assignments to essay vendor or trader sites (filesharing sites that are known providers of essays for use by others who submit them to instructors as their own work) involves "aiding and abetting" plagiarism. Students who do this can be charged with Academic Misconduct.

Non-academic misconduct. Students are expected to conduct themselves in a respectful manner on campus and in the learning environment irrespective of platform being used. Behaviour, communication, or acts that are inconsistent with a number of UW policies could be considered "non-academic" misconduct. More detailed information can be found here:

- Respectful Working and Learning Environment Policy
<https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/respect/respect-policy.html>,
- Acceptable Use of Information Technology Policy

<https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/institutional-analysis/docs/policies/acceptable-use-of-information-technology-policy.pdf>

- Non-Academic Misconduct Policy and Procedures: <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/institutional-analysis/docs/student-non-academic-misconduct-policy.pdf> and <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/institutional-analysis/docs/student-non-academic-misconduct-procedures.pdf>.

Copyright and Intellectual Property. Course materials are the property of the instructor who developed them. Examples of such materials are course outlines, assignment descriptions, lecture notes, test questions, and presentation slides—irrespective of format. Students who upload these materials to filesharing sites, or in any other way share these materials with others outside the class without prior permission of the instructor/presenter, are in violation of copyright law and University policy. Students must also seek prior permission of the instructor/presenter before, for example, photographing, recording, or taking screenshots of slides, presentations, lectures, and notes on the board. Students found to be in violation of an instructor’s intellectual property rights could face serious consequences pursuant to the Academic Misconduct or Non-Academic Misconduct Policy; such consequences could possibly involve legal sanction under the Copyright Policy
